The Georgia Affiliate of the National Organization on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (NOFAS GA)

Announces a series of

FREE Parent-To-Parent Topical Calls

What?
Interactive phone conversations with two experts, a professional in the field and a parent to discuss topic areas related to Fetal Alcohol Syndrome/Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders.

Who Should Attend?
Persons interested in learning from the experiences of professionals and parents who have been impacted by FAS/FASDs.

When?
The 2nd Thursday of every other month from 7:00pm to 8:00pm (EST).

Where?
RSVP by emailing zakiyagrant@gmail.com to receive the conference number and entry code. Do so quickly, as there are only 50 available lines.

Schedule of Topics
August 12th: Navigating the Educational System
- What are the best ways to communicate the needs of my child in the school system?
- What resources are available to families impacted by FAS/FASD (or similar conditions)?

October 14th: Evidence-based Interventions in FAS/FASD
- What are promising practices in the field for dealing with FAS/FASD-related issues?

December 9th: Advocacy
- What are the best avenues for advocating for your child?
- What are the advocacy training opportunities that exist in the state of Georgia?

February 10th: Recreational Options
- What recreational options exist for my child in the state of GA?
- Are there affordable programs?

April 14th: Transitions into Adulthood
- Graduation from high school…now what?
- What vocation programs exist in the state of GA?

June 9th: FAS 101
- Learn the fundamentals of FAS/FASD.